

Physician - Pathology

Speaker: Dr. Charlie Lombard

Pathologists are problem-solvers, fascinated by the process of disease and eager to unlock medical mysteries, such as AIDS and diabetes, using the sophisticated tools and methods of modern laboratory science. With today's rapid advances in biomedical science, over 2,000 laboratory tests on blood and body fluids are available – many of which require a pathologist's expert interpretation.