

The Missing Flower

Dreams too big to fit
In this grain of sand,
Lying on the beach,
thinking about
What comes next,
As the waves come crashing by

With billions of lights, filling up the sky
How will this star shine
Like the moon so pure,
Illuminating the night

Be the one
no one expected you to be,
grow
into the most beautiful flower to be ever seen, Spread
your branches
Higher and higher,
For the world is waiting for Your arrival

No matter what
The consequences,
No matter what
The route,
Take a stand,
Be the change
And give this dying world a second chance

Play your part in this Beautiful story called life,

No matter how big or small for the play is incomplete, Without a role from all

Use everything you got,
Loan your blood, sweat
And tears into this world

Plant trees that will grow
As high as the sun,
Learn to respect Our Mother
For she has given us
All that we have got

From the smallest critter,
To the biggest elephant,
Remind others
To not turn a blind eye
At the ones that are disappearing
Like a lake turning dry

Be selfless and pure, for you are to represent Millions and more

Place your passions into the welcoming hands of The world,
and be proud that it is yours

For that might just be that one Thing,
The world was holding on for.
